Conditions

- This statement of graduation serves as a provisional replacement for the student's diploma and is to be used if the student will not receive their official diploma before the deadline *. Note: the graduation statement is not a replacement of the official diploma. This means that the student must submit their official diploma as soon as they receive the diploma from the issuing institution.
- By fully completing this form, the educational institution declares that the student has passed the exam as stated above, definitively and unconditionally and has graduated before the deadline *. A graduation statement with a graduation date in the future is not valid and will not be accepted.
- NHL Stenden is obliged to cancel the student's enrolment if it appears that the student cannot submit the official diploma as stated above. No rights can be derived from registration on the basis of a graduation statement.

* NON-EU students should submit the graduation statement before the visa deadline of 1 July (September intake) / 1 December (February intake).

* EU students should submit the graduation statement before the application deadline of 1 September / 1 February
