YOUR BUSINESS, YOUR STAFF. COMBINING WORK AND STUDY

The associate degree from Hotel Management School Leeuwarden (HMSL) is a two-year study that enables your employee to combine work and study. Hostmanship, efficiency and innovation are essential in the hospitality industry. And yet finding and keeping good personnel with these skills can be a challenge. With our two-year programme, employees get to grow and contribute to improvements on the work floor in your business. Theory and practice go hand in hand resulting in with motivated staff, new insights and competitive advantage. Help build the future of hospitality!

Discover how work-based learning on the job strengthens businesses.

WHAT'S IN IT FOR YOUR BUSINESS... AND YOUR STAFF

■ Directly applicable knowledge

What your employee learns as a student during class days, inspiration sessions and collaborations, they put straight into practice.

■ Solutions for your business

Put forward your own challenges so your staff work on solutions to fit your business.

■ Learning by doing

Our educational concept Design-Based Education encourages developing, testing and refining improvements on both an operational and tactical level.

■ New connections

Class days take place at the hotel school and at partner companies in the field.

■ Accelerated programme possible

Depending on previous education and experience, the programme can be accelerated and completed in one to two years.

■ Quality in hospitality

Work with Hotel Management School Leeuwarden on the quality of hospitality education.

■ Attractive conditions

Subsidies and tax advantages make combining working and learning financially advantageous.

YOUR INVESTMENT

AS EMPLOYER

- Development opportunities
Give your employee the opportunity to carry out assignments within your business.
- Coaching
Spend 1-2 hours a week on checking in on progress and needs for both your employee and your business.
- Time and financial support
Discuss with your employee about compensation for study time (one class day per two weeks) or a contribution to tuition fees (€ 2,601 for 2025-2026).
- Employment contract
The dual study programme requires an employment contract of at least 24 hours a week.

WHY CHOOSE HOTEL MANAGEMENT SCHOOL LEEUWARDEN
